House Bill 270 (Delegate Carozza, et al.)
Health and Government Operations

General Provisions - Commemorative Months - Maryland Sportsmanship Month

This bill requires the Governor to annually proclaim February as Maryland Sportsmanship Month. The proclamation must urge the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), in conjunction with local recreation and parks departments, to observe Maryland Sportsmanship Month properly with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None. Urging DNR to observe Maryland Sportsmanship Month does not affect State finances. The bill grants flexibility on how to commemorate the occasion, and DNR advises that it does not have much direct involvement with youth and adult sporting events.

Local Effect: Minimal. Any increase in local recreation and parks department expenditures depends on if and how local governments choose to observe Maryland Sportsmanship Month. The bill grants flexibility on how to commemorate the occasion and does not require participation.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Twelve official commemorative days and six months are recognized in State law, as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Background: The preamble states that the five characteristics of sportsmanship are respect, fairness, integrity, responsibility, and perseverance and defines these five characteristics. The Mid-Atlantic Recreation and Parks’ Sports Alliance holds its annual Good Sports Awards Ceremony in February in Annapolis. The preamble states that under the direction of Al “Hondo” Handy, the Ocean City Recreation and Parks Department, and several other local partners across the State have successfully implemented sportsmanship months at the local level.
