3 Section 3–8A–29
4 Annotated Code of Maryland
5 (2013 Replacement Volume and 2019 Supplement)

6 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
7 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

8 Article – Courts and Judicial Proceedings

9 3–8A–19.

10 (e) (1) (i) Subject to the provisions of subparagraphs (iii) and (iv) of this 11 paragraph, in making a disposition on a finding that the child has committed the violation 12 specified in a citation, the court may order the Motor Vehicle Administration to initiate an 13 action, under the motor vehicle laws, to suspend the driving privilege of a child licensed to 14 operate a motor vehicle by the Motor Vehicle Administration for a specified period of not 15 less than 30 days nor more than 90 days.

16 (ii) In this paragraph, “driver’s license” means a license or permit to 17 drive a motor vehicle that is issued under the laws of this State or any other jurisdiction.

18 (iii) In making a disposition on a finding that the child has committed 19 a violation of § 10–113 of the Criminal Law Article specified in a citation that involved the 20 use of a driver’s license or a document purporting to be a driver’s license, the court may 21 order the Motor Vehicle Administration to initiate an action under the Maryland Vehicle 22 Law to suspend the driving privilege of a child licensed to operate a motor vehicle by the 23 Motor Vehicle Administration:

24 1. For a first offense, for 6 months; and

25 2. For a second or subsequent offense, until the child is 21
26 years old.

27 (iv) In making a disposition on a finding that the child has committed
28 a violation under § 26–103 of the Education Article, the court shall order the Motor Vehicle
29 Administration to initiate an action, under the motor vehicle laws, to suspend the driving
30 privilege of a child licensed to operate a motor vehicle by the Motor Vehicle Administration 31 for a specified period of not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days.

32 (v) If a child subject to a suspension under this subsection does not 33 hold a license to operate a motor vehicle on the date of the disposition, the suspension shall 34 commence:

35 1. If the child is at least 16 years of age on the date of the

1 disposition, on the date of the disposition; or

2 2. If the child is younger than 16 years of age on the date of 3 the disposition, on the date the child reaches the child's 16th birthday.

4 (2) In addition to the dispositions under paragraph (1) of this subsection,
5 the court also may:

6 (i) Counsel the child or the parent or both, or order the child to 7 participate in an alcohol or a substance abuse education or rehabilitation program that is 8 in the best interest of the child; OR

9 (ii) [Impose a civil fine of not more than $25 for the first violation 10 and a civil fine of not more than $100 for the second and subsequent violations; or

11 (iii)] Order the child to participate in a supervised work program for 12 not more than 20 hours for the first violation and not more than 40 hours for the second 13 and subsequent violations.

14 (3) (i) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection do not 15 apply to a child found to have committed a violation of § 10–108 of the Criminal Law Article.

16 (ii) In making a disposition on a finding that the child has committed 17 a violation of § 10–108 of the Criminal Law Article, the court may:

18 1. Counsel the child or the parent or both, or order the child
19 to participate in a smoking cessation clinic, or other suitable presentation of the hazards 20 associated with tobacco use that is in the best interest of the child; OR

21 2. [Impose a civil fine of not more than $25 for the first 22 violation and a civil fine of not more than $100 for a second or subsequent violation; or

23 3.] Order the child to participate in a supervised work
24 program for not more than 20 hours for the first violation and not more than 40 hours for 25 a second or subsequent violation.

26 (4) (i) In making a disposition on a finding that the child has committed
27 a violation of Title 4, Subtitle 5 or § 9–504 or § 9–505 of the Criminal Law Article, the court
28 may order the Motor Vehicle Administration to initiate an action, under the Maryland
29 Vehicle Law, to suspend the driving privilege of a child for a specified period not to exceed:

30 1. For a first offense, 6 months; and 31 2. For a second or subsequent offense, 1 year or until the 32 person is 21 years old, whichever is longer.

1 (ii) If a child subject to a suspension under this paragraph does not
2 possess the privilege to drive on the date of the disposition, the suspension shall commence:

3 1. If the child is at an age that is eligible to obtain the 4 privilege to drive on the date of the disposition, on the date of the disposition; or

5 2. If the child is younger than an age that is eligible to obtain
6 the privilege to drive on the date of the disposition, on the date the child is eligible to obtain 7 driving privileges.

8 (5) (i) In making a disposition on a finding that the child has committed
9 a violation under § 21–1128 of the Transportation Article, the court shall order the Motor 10 Vehicle Administration to initiate an action, under the motor vehicle laws, to suspend the 11 driving privilege of a child licensed to operate a motor vehicle by the Motor Vehicle
12 Administration for a specified period of not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days.

13 (ii) If a child subject to a suspension under this paragraph does not
14 possess the privilege to drive on the date of the disposition, the suspension shall commence:

15 1. If, on the date of the disposition, the child is at an age that 16 makes a child eligible to obtain the privilege to drive, on the date of the disposition; or

17 2. If, on the date of the disposition, the child is younger than 18 an age that makes a child eligible to obtain the privilege to drive, on the date the child is 19 eligible to obtain driving privileges.

20 [(g) The court may impose reasonable court costs against a respondent, or the 21 respondent's parent, guardian, or custodian, against whom a finding of delinquency has 22 been entered under the provisions of this section.]

23 [(h) (G) A child may be placed in an emergency facility on an emergency basis
24 under Title 10, Subtitle 6, Part IV of the Health – General Article.

25 [(i) (H) The court may not commit a child to the custody of the Maryland
26 Department of Health under this section for inpatient care and treatment in a State mental 27 hospital unless the court finds on the record based upon clear and convincing evidence that:

28 (1) The child has a mental disorder;

29 (2) The child needs inpatient medical care or treatment for the protection 30 of himself or others;

31 (3) The child is unable or unwilling to be voluntarily admitted to such 32 facility; and

33 (4) There is no less restrictive form of intervention available which is 34 consistent with the child's condition and welfare.

1 [(j)] (I) The court may not commit a child to the custody of the Maryland
2 Department of Health under this section for inpatient care and treatment in a State mental
3 retardation facility unless the court finds on the record based upon clear and convincing 4 evidence that:

5 (1) The child is mentally retarded;

6 (2) The condition is of such a nature that for the adequate care or protection 7 of the child or others, the child needs in-residence care or treatment; and

8 (3) There is no less restrictive form of care and treatment available which 9 is consistent with the child's welfare and safety.

10 [(k)] (J) (1) Any commitment order issued under subsection [(i) or (j)] (H) OR 11 (I) of this section shall require the Maryland Department of Health to file progress reports 12 with the court at intervals no greater than every 6 months during the life of the order. The 13 Maryland Department of Health shall provide the child's attorney of record with a copy of 14 each report. The court shall review each report promptly and consider whether the 15 commitment order should be modified or vacated. After the first 6 months of the 16 commitment and at 6-month intervals thereafter upon the request of any party, the 17 Department or facility, the court shall grant a hearing for the purpose of determining if the 18 standards specified in subsection [(i) or (j)] (H) OR (I) of this section continue to be met.

19 (2) If, at any time after the commitment of the child to a State mental 20 hospital under this section, the individualized treatment plan developed under § 10-706 of 21 the Health – General Article recommends that a child no longer meets the standards
22 specified in subsection [(i)] (H) of this section, then the court shall grant a hearing to review
23 the commitment order. The court may grant a hearing at any other time for the purpose of 24 determining if the standards specified in subsection [(i)] (H) of this section continue to be 25 met.

26 (3) If, at any time after the commitment of the child to a State mental 27 retardation facility under this section, the individualized plan of habilitation developed
28 under § 7-1006 of the Health – General Article recommends that a child no longer meets
29 the standards specified in subsection [(j)] (I) of this section, then the court shall grant a 30 hearing to review the commitment order. The court may grant a hearing at any other time
31 for the purpose of determining if the standards specified in subsection [(j)] (I) of this section 32 continue to be met.

33 3-8A-20.

34 (a) Except as provided in subsection [(d)] (C) of this section, a party is entitled to 35 the assistance of counsel at every stage of any proceeding under this subtitle.

36 (b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, a child may not

1 waive the right to the assistance of counsel in a proceeding under this subtitle.

2 (2) A parent, guardian, or custodian of a child may not waive the child's 3 right to the assistance of counsel.

4 (3) After a petition or citation has been filed with the court under this 5 subtitle, if a child indicates a desire to waive the right to the assistance of counsel, the court 6 may not accept the waiver unless:

7 (i) The child is in the presence of counsel and has consulted with 8 counsel; and

9 (ii) The court determines that the waiver is knowing and voluntary.

10 (4) In determining whether the waiver is knowing and voluntary, the court 11 shall consider, after appropriate questioning in open court and on the record, whether the 12 child fully comprehends:

13 (i) The nature of the allegations and the proceedings, and the range 14 of allowable dispositions;

15 (ii) That counsel may be of assistance in determining and presenting 16 any defenses to the allegations of the petition, or other mitigating circumstances;

17 (iii) That the right to the assistance of counsel in a delinquency case, 18 or a child in need of supervision case, includes the right to the prompt assignment of an 19 attorney, without charge to the child if the child is financially unable to obtain private 20 counsel;

21 (iv) That even if the child intends not to contest the charge or 22 proceeding, counsel may be of substantial assistance in developing and presenting material 23 that could affect the disposition; and

24 (v) That among the child's rights at any hearing are the right to call 25 witnesses on the child's behalf, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses, the right 26 to obtain witnesses by compulsory process, and the right to require proof of any charges.

27 (c) [Compensation for the services of an attorney appointed to represent a child 28 in an action under this subtitle may be assessed by the court against any party or against 29 a parent of the child.

30 (d)] (1) A party is not entitled to the assistance of counsel at a peace order 31 proceeding.

32 (2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection does not affect the entitlement of a 33 respondent to the assistance of counsel in a contempt proceeding as provided by law.

1 [(e)] (D) (1) Unless the case is dismissed, if a child appears in court without 2 counsel for a waiver hearing under § 3–8A–06 of this subtitle, or an adjudicatory hearing
3 under § 3–8A–18 of this subtitle, and the child has not previously waived the right to the 4 assistance of counsel in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, the court shall 5 continue and the clerk shall reschedule the waiver or adjudicatory hearing.

6 (2) The clerk shall issue a notice of the date, time, and location of the 7 hearing at least 10 days prior to the date of the hearing.

8 (3) (i) The Office of the Public Defender shall enter an appearance for 9 the child.

10 (ii) After entry of its appearance, the Office of the Public Defender 11 shall verify eligibility for continued public defender representation in accordance with § 12 16–210 of the Criminal Procedure Article and the Maryland Rules.

13 (4) The continuance of a waiver or adjudicatory hearing under this 14 subsection may not be a basis for detaining the child under § 3–8A–15 of this subtitle.

15 ~~3–8A–29.~~

16 After giving the parent a reasonable opportunity to be heard, the court may order 17 either parent or both parents to pay a sum in the amount the court directs to cover wholly 18 or partly the support of the child under this subtitle.]

19 ~~3–8A–29.~~

20 A COURT MAY NOT ORDER A PARENT, GUARDIAN, CUSTODIAN, OR CHILD TO 21 PAY:

22 (1) A FINE, FEE, OR COST UNDER THIS SUBTITLE; OR

23 (2) A SUM OF MONEY TO COVER THE SUPPORT OF A CHILD UNDER 24 THIS SUBTITLE.

25 ~~3–8A–32.~~

26 (a) In addition to any requirements relating to the appointment of counsel for 27 children, at any time during the pendency of any action under this subtitle, where it 28 appears to the court that the protection of the rights of a child requires independent 29 representation, the court may, upon its own motion, or the motion of any party to the action, 30 appoint an attorney to represent the interest of the child in that particular action. Such 31 actions include but are not limited to those involving a child in need of supervision, 32 delinquent child, or mentally handicapped child.

33 (b) (1) [The] EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH (2) OF THIS

1 SUBSECTION, compensation for the services of the attorney under this section may be 2 assessed against any party or parties to the action.

3 (2) COMPENSATION FOR THE SERVICES OF AN ATTORNEY UNDER
4 THIS SECTION MAY NOT BE ASSESSED AGAINST A PARENT, GUARDIAN, CUSTODIAN,
5 OR CHILD IN A DELINQUENCY PROCEEDING.

6 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That on the effective date of this 7 Act, the balance of any court-ordered fines, fees, or costs previously assessed under the 8 provisions of law repealed by this Act shall be unenforceable and uncollectable and the 9 portion of any judgment that imposed those fines, fees, or costs shall be vacated.

10 SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
11 October 1, 2020.
