The American Legion Cook-Pinkney 141 is a nonprofit 501(c) 19 located at 1707 Forest Dr. Annapolis Md. This organization was birth in 1936 off of Clay St., in Annapolis it move to its present location in 1977. Since then it has been a place where many Veterans from different wars have come to call home. It has also become a part of the local community by opening its doors to the city to become a Cooling Station in the summer time and a Warming Station during the winter months, we have also aloud two Mentoring groups to use the our building. When HACA was renovating some of their units last summer we aloud them the use of our hall to feed their tenants. We have also been used by the Annapolis Police & Emergency Responses Unit for a mass casualty drill. As you can see our Post is not just used for the Veteran Community but for the community over all.
