3 FOR the purpose of altering the definition of “extraordinary medical expenses” under the
4 child support guidelines; providing for the application of this Act; and generally
5 relating to child support.

6 BY repealing and reenacting, without amendments,
7 Article – Family Law
8 Section 12–201(a) and 12–204(h), (l), and (m)
9 Annotated Code of Maryland
10 (2012 Replacement Volume and 2018 Supplement)

11 BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
12 Article – Family Law
13 Section 12–201(g)
14 Annotated Code of Maryland
15 (2012 Replacement Volume and 2018 Supplement)

16 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
17 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

18 Article – Family Law

19 12–201.

EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

Underlining indicates amendments to bill.

~~Strike out~~ indicates matter stricken from the bill by amendment or deleted from the law by amendment.

1 (a) In this subtitle the following words have the meanings indicated.

2 (g) (1) “Extraordinary medical expenses” means uninsured [expenses over
3 $100 for a single illness or condition] COSTS FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT IN EXCESS OF 4 $250 IN ANY CALENDAR YEAR.

5 (2) “Extraordinary medical expenses” includes uninsured, reasonable, and
6 necessary costs for orthodontia, dental treatment, VISION CARE, asthma treatment,
7 physical therapy, treatment for any chronic health problem, and professional counseling or 8 psychiatric therapy for diagnosed mental disorders.

9 12–204.

10 (h) (1) Any actual cost of providing health insurance coverage for a child for 11 whom the parents are jointly and severally responsible shall be added to the basic child
12 support obligation and shall be divided by the parents in proportion to their adjusted actual 13 incomes.

14 (2) Any extraordinary medical expenses incurred on behalf of a child shall 15 be added to the basic child support obligation and shall be divided between the parents in 16 proportion to their adjusted actual incomes.

17 (l) (1) Except in cases of shared physical custody, each parent’s child support
18 obligation shall be determined by adding each parent’s respective share of the basic child
19 support obligation, work–related child care expenses, health insurance expenses,
20 extraordinary medical expenses, and additional expenses under subsection (i) of this 21 section.

22 (2) The obligee shall be presumed to spend that parent’s total child support
23 obligation directly on the child or children.

24 (3) The obligor shall owe that parent’s total child support obligation as 25 child support to the obligee minus any ordered payments included in the calculations made
26 directly by the obligor on behalf of the child or children for work–related child care
27 expenses, health insurance expenses, extraordinary medical expenses, or additional 28 expenses under subsection (i) of this section.

29 (m) (1) In cases of shared physical custody, the adjusted basic child support
30 obligation shall first be divided between the parents in proportion to their respective 31 adjusted actual incomes.

32 (2) Each parent’s share of the adjusted basic child support obligation shall 33 then be multiplied by the percentage of time the child or children spend with the other
34 parent to determine the theoretical basic child support obligation owed to the other parent.

1 (3) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (4) and (5) of this subsection,
2 the parent owing the greater amount under paragraph (2) of this subsection shall owe the
3 difference in the 2 amounts as child support.

4 (4) In addition to the amount of the child support owed under paragraph
5 (3) of this subsection, if either parent incurs child care expenses under subsection (g) of this
6 section, health insurance expenses under subsection (h)(1) of this section, extraordinary
7 medical expenses under subsection (h)(2) of this section, or additional expenses under
8 subsection (i) of this section, the expense shall be divided between the parents in proportion
9 to their respective adjusted actual incomes. The parent not incurring the expense shall pay 10 that parent's proportionate share to:

11 (i) the parent making direct payments to the provider of the service;
12 or

13 (ii) the provider directly, if a court order requires direct payments to 14 the provider.

15 (5) The amount owed under paragraph (3) of this subsection may not 16 exceed the amount that would be owed under subsection (l) of this section.

17 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall apply only to 18 extraordinary medical expenses incurred on or after the effective date of this Act.

19 SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
20 October 1, 2019.

Approved:

Governor.

Speaker of the House of Delegates.

President of the Senate.
