Analysis

Bill Summary: The following information must be redacted from the case file: (1) the name and gender of the child and the child's parents; (2) the race or ethnicity of the child and the child's parents; (3) the sexual orientation of the child and the child's parents; (4) the address of the child and the child's parents; (5) the birth order of the child and the number of children of the parents; (6) the religious and political affiliation or beliefs of the child and the child's parents; (7) the marital status, income, and education level of the child's parents; (8) the type of education chosen by the parents for the child, as applicable and specified; and (9) any prior investigation of the child's parents for child abuse or neglect that resulted in an unsubstantiated or ruled out finding.

Current Law: The Social Services Administration within DHS is responsible for providing child welfare services to a child and the child's parent or guardian. This includes the establishment of a program of out-of-home placements for minor children in specified circumstances. Statutory provisions set forth a process by which a child may be removed from the home and placed in an out-of-home placement.
