28. Comments

Many people think of the MVM as simply a museum that houses artifacts and that it does not impact on our lives. MVM certainly has a strong reputation doing just that function.

It is much more than that. We have developed a summary of some of the more notable activities at the museum. As you will see, the MVM has impact on education, community activities, numerous local and statewide groups, tourism, and economic develop as well as local pride and prestige.

The MVM presents Maryland's contribution to our American Heritage from the Revolutionary War to the current Gulf conflict. The museum has memorabilia from Maryland veterans donated from the entire state.

The MVM memorial brick garden eulogizes veterans from not only Maryland, but from veterans from other states who are recognized and honored.

The MVM, with its beautiful Patriot Hall, has hosted numerous Maryland and National Organizations. Examples include:

-National Association of Black Veterans (NABVETS) Day for Maryland and NABVETS State Regional Conference.

-The Washington Rochambeau Revolutionary War Route (W3R) National Meeting for ten (10) states.

-National Society Daughters of the American Revolution State and Chapter meetings.

-National Society Sons of the American Revolution Chapter meetings.

-Archeological Society of Maryland that included every county in Maryland.

-Disabled American Veterans - DAV regularly holds statewide and regional meetings.

-Veterans of Foreign Wars - VFW statewide meetings.

-National Society United States Daughters of 1812 - Maryland Chapter Annual meetings.

-The MVM holds its annual Patriots Day Festival, Veterans Day ceremonies, and Car Shows that have attendance from all over Maryland as well as the surrounding states. Patriot Hall is available for the entire community to rent and is free of charge for all veteran organizations.

-The Museum has hosted numerous veteran groups such as Healing Waters, VA Health Clinics and provides advice on VA Services.

The National Park Service has designated the MVM as an Information Center and the museum appears on maps that direct Marylanders and visitors on the East Coast to the Museum.
