Hospital Credentialing - Reappointment Process for Physician Staff - Modification

Analysis

Bill Summary/Current Law: Under current law, as a condition of licensure, each hospital must establish a credentialing process for the physicians who are employed by or who have staff privileges at the hospital and use the uniform credentialing form as the initial application of a physician seeking to be credentialed.

The Secretary of Health must, by regulation and in consultation with hospitals, physicians, interested community and advocacy groups, and representatives of the Maryland Defense Bar and Plaintiffs' Bar, establish minimum standards for a credentialing process, which must include:

- a formal written appointment process documenting the physician’s education, clinical expertise, licensure history, insurance history, medical history, claims history, and professional experience;
- a requirement that an initial appointment to staff not be complete until the physician has successfully completed a probationary period; and
- a formal written reappointment process to be conducted at least every two years that documents the physician’s pattern of performance by analyzing specified factors such as clinical skills and claims filed against the physician.

Under the bill, the formal written reappointment process must be conducted in accordance with standards of the accreditation body that accredits a hospital rather than at least every two years.
