

Dear Members of the Judicial Proceedings Committee,

This testimony is being submitted by Showing Up for Racial Justice Baltimore, a group of white folks working as part of a multi-racial movement for equity and racial justice in Baltimore City and Baltimore County. We are working in collaboration with the Campaign for Justice, Safety, and Jobs. I am a resident of MD District 43. I am also a longtime member of Baltimore's vibrant theatre community, and the Artistic Director at the Fells Point Corner Theatre. I am testifying in support of Senate Bill 626, which sets statutory limits on police use of force for the state of Maryland.

As one of the nine states with no statutory language limiting police use of force, Maryland's police are only regulated by federal and local law. This means that in Maryland, police have more freedom by law than in most states to brutalize citizens with impunity. Currently, Use of Force in Maryland is governed by two Supreme Court cases Graham v Connor (1989) and Tennessee v Garner (1985). However, no current state or federal law meets international standards for police use of force. That is unacceptable.

A meaningful police use of force statute needs to 1) make use of force acceptable only when "necessary" (rather than when "reasonable" as federal law states); 2) ban certain holds; 3) define "use of force" and delineate alternative actions; 4) limit on when officers can claim self-defense if their behavior incited the necessity to use force; 5) duty to de-escalate and to intervene with fellow officers; and 6) require police departments to enact policies to limit use of force against certain vulnerable people, including those who have mental/behavioral impairments and those who speak limited English.

By implementing all of these provisions, we will have a Use of Force statute that helps to preserve human life and welfare and ensures accountability for actions done to people like George Floyd, Freddie Gray, Tamir Rice, Breonna Taylor, and the hundreds of people who lose their lives to police violence.

It is for these reasons that I am encouraging you to vote in support of Senate Bill 626.

Thank you for your time, service, and consideration.

Sincerely,
Barbara Hauck (she/her)
