

Dear Members of the House Judiciary Committee,

This testimony is being submitted by Showing Up for Racial Justice Baltimore, a group of white folks working as part of a multi-racial movement for equity and racial justice in Baltimore City and Baltimore County. We are also working in collaboration with the CASA de Maryland. I am a resident of MD District 42A. I live with an immigrant family, and I have worked with many immigrants in the service industry over the years. My roommate is here on a work visa, which means she must never lose her job or else risk deportation and separation from her children who were born here. I never asked my coworkers their legal status, but I know that every immigrant I have met is grateful to be here and shows it through hard, long hours of work. They pay taxes, and therefore, should get the same legal representation I do. This is why I am testifying in support of House Bill 750.

Legal representation is the difference between winning and losing in immigration court. In Baltimore Immigration Court, those with legal representation were four times more likely to win their case. Currently, low-income people in immigration court are not provided lawyers to represent them, even though they face deportation, permanent family separation, detention, and persecution in their country of origin. In fact, 81% of detained immigrants in Maryland have no representation at any point in their case.

Immigration laws are complex and difficult to understand, especially if English is not your first language. Justice in these cases should not be determined by your ability to hire a lawyer. This is why we need Universal Representation — so that, regardless of background or income, ALL people receive due process under the law.

When members of our immigrant community are deported without representation, they often leave behind spouses, children, and jobs. Take for example Eddy, a member of our immigrant community who was pulled over for a driving violation, then detained in the Howard County Detention Center. Eddy was subsequently transferred to detention centers in Jessup, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Louisiana, and finally deported, leaving behind his wife and three-year-old daughter.

During this entire process, Eddy had no legal representation. Not only is this unjust, it is also incredibly disruptive to families and communities who are already vulnerable. Universal Representation would guarantee people like Eddy receive a fair trial and increase the likelihood of them remaining with their families.

House Bill 750 would ameliorate that by ensuring the over 500 Maryland resident immigrants in detention are connected to counsel in deportation hearings in cases heard in Maryland and stipends and assistance in obtaining counsel in cases heard out-of-state. Programs like these are already in place in Prince George's County and Baltimore City and they make a difference.

It is for these reasons that I am encouraging you to vote in support of House Bill 750.

Thank you for your time, service, and consideration.

Sincerely,
