

Dear sirs, my testimony,

I don't understand this fascination by the free our interest group with intuition, there is no need to hamstring the process with such a request.

Just send in the accountants to figure out who gets what and hire an advocate team for plan holders to make sure things are fair for current and past participants and explain things to the plan holders in simple terms.

Michael Lynn