

HB1224 Favorable

This safeguards parents right to be informed. The fact that we're even having to put this in place is discouraging. The parents are the sole protector of their children. There is a very small percentage of people who truly don't care about their children's welfare and they shouldn't effect the parents who do.