

Testimony in SUPPORT of SB 100

SB100 - Real Property – Actions to Repossess – Proof of Rental Licensure
House Judiciary Committee

March 28th, 2023

Dear Honorable Chair Clippinger, Vice Chair Moon, and committee members,

We are writing to express our strong support for SB100. CASA is the largest membership-based immigrant rights organization in the mid-Atlantic region, with more than 90,000 members in Maryland. Our mission is to create a more just society by building power and improving the quality of life in working-class and immigrant communities. We envision a future where our members stand in their own power, our families live free from discrimination and fear, and our diverse communities thrive as we work with our partners to achieve full human rights for all.

For nearly forty years, CASA has employed grassroots community organizing to bring our communities closer together and fight for justice, while simultaneously providing much-needed services to these communities, helping to ensure that low-income immigrants are able to live rich and full lives.

SB 100 as amended is identical to amended HB 36, which recently passed this Committee and then the full House by a vote of 101-34. In localities that have a landlord licensing law, SB 100 would stop landlords who do not have a license from using streamlined court processes to evict tenants. Licensing laws protect public health and safety through periodic inspections. Like any other business, if a landlord wants to file suit in Maryland courts, they must be licensed in any jurisdiction that requires licensure.

Landlord representatives and representatives from Renters United Maryland negotiated a series of amendments to create exceptions in SB 100 for situations in which 1) the tenant caused the licensing failure, 2) the licensing agency erred in failing to issue the license, or 3) situations in which the landlord acted in good faith to obtain a license but has been unable to do so because of a problem with a unit unrelated to the eviction case. These amendments were the product of sustained negotiation and strike a balance between the interests of tenants and landlords. We urge the Committee to pass amended SB 100 with no new amendments.

Licensing laws in six (6) counties and other municipalities require landlords to pass a periodic health and safety inspection. The vast majority of landlords comply with these laws. However, we have witnessed many clients or constituents whose predatory landlords refuse to make repairs, refuse to obtain a license, extract as much rent as possible, and when the tenant complains, move to evict them through one of Maryland's streamlined eviction processes. When unlicensed landlords successfully use eviction court, it encourages all landlords to ignore licensing laws and increases the risk of tenants being subjected to health and safety hazards.

While current law stops illegally operating landlords from obtaining a judgment for eviction for failure to pay rent, the Court created a loophole in Velicky v. CopyCat by allowing illegally operating landlords to obtain an eviction in Tenant Holding Over cases. 476 Md. 435 (2021). On Jan. 17, 2023, the Baltimore Banner reported that “Tenant Holding Over filings are now about three times higher than they were before the pandemic.” Under current law, landlords in these cases may ignore basic health and safety laws and still use the taxpayer-funded court system to evict tenants.

Judge Shirley Watts understood this dynamic, and wrote in dissent in Velicky: “Allowing [the landlord] to evict [tenants] in a tenant holding over action under RP § 8-402 without a license essentially renders the licensing requirement of Baltimore City Code ... meaningless and defeats its purpose of ensuring that rental properties are fit to live in. As a result of the majority opinion, Copycat and other landlords will have very little incentive to get licenses, which would require bringing rental properties up to code.”

CASA is a member of Renters United Maryland, a statewide coalition of renters, organizers, and advocates, and we urge the Committee's Favorable report on SB 100 with no further amendments.
